

THE MAGIC NUMBER

What's better than smart skincare? Multitasking smart skincare. Nubo's Cell Dynamic Cooling After Shave Moisturiser SPF 20 offers three solutions in one. As an aftershave, it cools on contact. It then sinks into the epidermis to help rejuvenate – while also giving UV-ray protection. 30ml, £80. Available from The Gentleman's Lounge, Lower Ground Floor

Hot TROPIC

A precise balance of botanical ingredients and cutting-edge technology has made Sisley Paris a favourite of grooming editors. Now, that know-how has been used to reinvent its Tropical Resins line, for oily and combination skin. Gentle Cleansing Gel £56, Mattifying Moisturizing Skin Care £80 and Intensive Serum £103. Available from The Gentleman's Lounge, Lower Ground Floor; and The Cosmetics Hall, Ground Floor

Bright EYES

Disguising tired eyes is one of the trickiest fixes to achieve, so new solutions are always welcome. Thankfully, the Icelandic skincare wizards at Bioeffect have developed a doubly potent hit with a new serum-and-mask kit. The Eye Serum contains a concentrated dose of synthetic EGF (epidermal growth factor), mimicking the skin's "messengers", which tell cells to grow and produce collagen. The Eye Mask then works as an instantly cooling, puff-reducing eye-opener. £75; exclusive to Harrods. Available from The Beauty Apothecary, Ground Floor

Essential oil

One might think that the man who created the world's most expensive perfume had built his own glass ceiling. But that would underestimate Clive Christian. This month, he launches Absolutes: three fragrances reformulated as pure perfume oils via a painstaking scent-maximising extraction process known as enfleurage. The intense oils – Osmanthus, Amber and Frankincense – are each inspired by an existing Clive Christian favourite. From £3,500; exclusive to Harrods. Available from Salon de Parfums, Sixth Floor

Model/Getty Images

Made in ITALY

From citrus groves to cool mountains, Acqua di Parma has an uncanny ability to capture Italy's landscape. Its latest fragrance, Colonia Quercia, channels the Piedmont woods. Oakmoss absolute – a tribute to the region's oak trees – sits at the heart, piqued with lemon and bergamot, all of which dries down into a base of patchouli and tonka bean. 100ml, £176. Available from The Gentleman's Lounge, Lower Ground Floor; The Beauty Apothecary and The Perfumery Hall, Ground Floor

